

AT THE CLUB

Entertainment at the Country Club.

HAT WERE PRESENT

Society Events and Gossip at Persons That Move in Local Society Circles.

Resorts are the attraction whether they are near or far. The days are too warm for comfort among the massive piles of brick and stone, so the inhabitants thereof flee to the mountains and seashores where life is a constant comfort if not a perpetual joy. Those who do remain at home and brave the heat of the summer find relief in trips to the lake or North park where charming little companies congregate to pass a merry evening. One of the most delightful affairs of the kind given this season occurred at the country club Friday evening. It was the company given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. McGargar and Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Wurzburg. Pedro was played from 8 to 11 o'clock. When the prizes were to be awarded it was found that the woman's prize had been won by Mrs. D. H. Armstrong. There was a tie for the men's prize, Leon Chase and C. E. Slaght, E. M. Mooney, Ed Seymour, D. H. Armstrong, Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsey, Misses Slaght, Hill, Lillie, Bertha and Grace Becknap, Bessie Walker, May Strahan, Mammie Gibbons, Addie Canfield, Tuxbury, Messrs. James Knox, E. D. Whitlock, Orrin Ward, Walter Meech, Fred Rand, Claude Bottsford, D. W. Tower, Ben Hanchet, Jr., Charley Hovey, Arthur Sharp, Fred Slaght, Charles Beckwith, Blake Gibson, Tom Willard, Fred Canfield, Dr. J. Ward House and Lieut. John Gibbons of the United States navy.
